Marlborough's 71st Labor Day Parade Route Change

MARLBOROUGH, MA – Mayor Arthur Vigeant and Labor Day Parade Director Melanie Whapham are thrilled to announce Marlborough's annual Labor Day Parade will continue this year marking 71 years of tradition.

This year's parade will feature a route change. The parade starts at the intersection of Pleasant and Lincoln Streets, proceeds west onto Lincoln Street, south onto Broad Street and east onto West Main Street. The parade will continue down Granger Boulevard and briefly turns onto Main Street. The parade will turn south onto Maple Street, ending at the intersection of Bolton Street (Route 85) and Maple Street. Due to ongoing construction, the parade will not go down Main Street.

If you would like to participate or volunteer, please visit the 2023 Marlborough Labor Day Parade website - <https://marlboroughlabordayparade.com> for applications and more information.

Donations are encouraged to supplement the City's sponsorship. Donations are available at five levels of support. For more information about sponsorship levels, please visit <https://marlboroughlabordayparade.com/2017-sponsorship-page>.
